Will the Minister of PERSONNEL,PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS be pleased to state:

(a) whether any time bound programme regarding administrative reform has been launched by the Union Government; and

(b) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS.(SHRI SURESH PACHOURI)

(a) & (b): Government of India has decided to constitute the second Administrative Reforms Commission (ARC) to prepare a detailed blueprint for revamping the public administration system. The Commission will look into the organizational structure of the Government of India and give its recommendations on strengthening the framework for an efficient, economical, sensitive, clean, objective and responsive administrative machinery. In the meantime, based on the recommendations of certain other Committees, the Government has decided to introduce Performance Appraisal Report for objective evaluation of performance of civil servants, mandatory mid-career training with a view to upgrade the skills and competencies and fair and objective promotion scheme for senior civil servants. These changes are expected to be introduced from the next year after consultation with State Governments.
